MARATHON AGAPI

Dear Supporter,

The Hellenic Ladies Benevolent Society (HLBS) is gearing up for its annual Radiothon Marathon Agapi (Marathon of Love) on Saturday, November 9, 2024.

For over a century, the HLBS has been dedicated to lightening the burden carried by individuals – perhaps even people you know personally – who find themselves in desperate need of support.

Through your unwavering generosity and love (AGAPI), our charity has been able to enact meaningful change by providing emergency assistance for essentials like food, clothing, rent, medical bills, burials, educational assistance and bursaries.

This year, amid escalating living costs, our services are in even greater demand, and we are steadfast in our commitment to aiding those in dire need. Once again, we rely on your support to provide hope and assistance within our community.
